

Terrebonne Parish Business News

Rouses acquires 10 locations... Rouses announced acquisition of 10 grocery store locations in Louisiana and Mississippi from Southeastern Grocers (parent company of Winn Dixie), with the changeover planned for early 2026.

Chabert makes the safety grade... Leonard J. Chabert Medical Center has earned an "A" grade in patient safety from the Leapfrog agency that rates more than 3,000 general acute-care hospitals across the U.S.

Arc director receives national honor... Mary Lynn Bisland, executive director of Terrebonne Arc, has been recognized with the Executive Excellence Award from The Arc of the United States National Council of Executives. The award honors outstanding leadership, innovation and commitment to creating meaningful impact within the disability services community.

TEDA staff member appointed to boards... Katherine Gilbert-Theriot, TEDA's director of business retention and expansion, has been appointed to the Explore Houma board of directors and reappointed to the Houma Downtown Development Commission.

Local chef showcased in NYC... Chef Nadia Burrell represented the Houma area as one of 11 chefs from the state to participate in a tourism campaign introducing New Yorkers to Louisiana dishes. She owns Nadie B's Taste of HomeAh restaurant in Gray.

Chauvin representing region in education... Fletcher Technical Community College's Director of WorkReady U Adult Education, Jamie Chauvin, has been inducted as the Region 3 representative for the 2025 Louisiana Association of Public, Community, and Adult Educators Board of Directors.

CEO joins 2026 leadership class... TEDA's Chief Executive Officer Cohen Guidry has been selected for the Delta Regional Authority's Leadership Institute Executive Academy. He is one of 33 accepted into the competitive program from the lower Mississippi River Delta and Alabama Black Belt regions.

TGHS launching reconstruction project... Terrebonne General Hospital System has announced the launch of the reconstruction of the 107,000-square-foot three-story patient tower. It will feature larger, more accessible private patient rooms that enhance safety, improve care delivery and foster a more efficient and collaborative environment for staff.

Nacio featured in Rose Parade... The Louisiana Office of Tourism's 2026 Rose Parade float will feature Lance Nacio, owner of Anna Marine Shrimp in Montegut. The float will feature a giant pelican chef stirring a gumbo filled with shrimp, crab, crawfish and other Gulf Coast ingredients. The parade is held Jan. 1 in Pasadena, California, and broadcast nationally.

Company honors employees... Danos has named Jason Mayet its Field Employee of the Year and Corey Stein the Staff Employee of the Year.

Manufacturing Week observed... South Central Industrial Association and Fletcher Technical Community College teamed up to give more than 150 students from nine local public and private high schools a firsthand look at the local manufacturing industry. Students toured Sealevel Construction, John Deere Thibodaux, Hunting Energy Services, Bollinger Shipyards, K&B Industries, Cortec, Oceaneering, Danos/Natrix and Cajun Cutters during the week of Oct.6-10.

Share your company's news in future editions of Terrebonne Parish Economic Highlights by emailing TEDA at ktheriot@tpeda.org today!